

The Rose Hill Harold Scheiderer Educational Award & The Rose Hill Ted Frissora Educational Award 2021

Sponsored by Rose Hill PIE

The Rose Hill PTO has established two $500 educational awards in honor of Harold Scheiderer and Ted Frissora. Mr. Scheiderer, who was the principal of Rose Hill Elementary School from 1986 until his retirement in 1991, served in the Reynoldsburg City School district for thirty years. Ted Frissora was the principal at Rose Hill Elementary for 19 years and has served the Reynoldsburg district for 24 years. His passion for the education of the students is evident in all that he does.

To be considered eligible for the educational award, all applicants must:

1. Be a current Reynoldsburg High School senior who attended Rose Hill Elementary a minimum of two academic years.
2. Have a 3.0 GPA minimum. Transcript to verify GPA.
3. Be planning to further their academic studies beyond their high school experience at any accredited educational institution (university, college, technical or business school). Attach letter of acceptance.
4. Have completed the attached data form and submitted the required essay.
5. Include at least two letters of recommendation from your teacher, principal, counselor, clergy or non-family member.
6. Be available to attend Rose Hill's fourth grade Recognition Program in the morning and read your winning essay. You will receive your educational award during the program.
7. Return the completed application to your Academy Office by Wednesday, March 24, 2021 by 3pm.
